recorder players Tom Bickley and David Barnett perform 14th century music with 21st century insights, and 21st century music with 14th century insights, enjoying the contrasts and common points of both repertoires.

They will present works from Italy, England, Japan and the US to surprise, engage, inspire and entertain you.
Memorable tunes, striking dissonances, and "sonorous open fifths" - (American Recorder, September 2004)
